

Choices

When I was a kid I wanted to make more of my own choices. As an adult I feel over whelmed by the choices I have to make. From choices that are easy to those choices that don't come easy, God is there to help us. He wants us to choose what is right and He wants to help us with all our choices, if we will let Him.

Just the other day I was struggling with a choice that if I had made would have led me to sin. Just as I was getting ready to make a poor choice I got a text from a good Christian friend of mine. Here is what it said; "Got a thought for ya. In the Lord's Prayer he says "give us this day our daily bread" not give us this day enough for a month or year or so. I see where he desires to have that daily dependence in our walk and relationship with Him. Just like faith comes from hearing, day by day, not from having heard once. Love Ya." Now this did not specifically address the choice I was going to make, but it did return my focus to Jesus and helped me make the right choice. I thank God for a brother, in Christ, that thinks about me and when I'm on his heart reaches out to me. 1 Corinthians 10:13 No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. We all make choices and a lot of these choices, no, all of the choices you make are being made by someone else as well. Not all of the choices you make will lead to sin, but all the choices you make will affect your life. This is why it is important to make right choices. James 1:5 If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you.

No matter what the question, no matter what you need or want, no matter the CHOICE make the first question "God help me, will the choice I am about to make glorify you, what do you want me to do?" Also, if someone is on your heart do what my friend did. Take a few seconds to reach out to them, they may have a choice they are struggling with and need to focus back on God, and God may want to use you to help bring their focus back to Him.

God Bless,

Ronnie
