

Disappointment

I can look back on my life and remember several times I have been disappointed and just as many times that I have been a disappointment to others. Disappointment weighs heavy on my heart whether it is me feeling disappointed or me feeling I am a disappointment. Then there are those times I feel I have disappointed God, man what a weight that is. This is the disappointment I want to talk about today, because when we reconcile this disappointment those other disappointments seem to fall in line as well.

As you read your bible you find many people with circumstances where they may have felt God was disappointed with them. Job was tested by Satan himself, Josephs was rejected by his family and sold into slavery, and Daniel was thrown into a lion's den. None of these situations were because God was disappointed with these people. Romans 8:28 says And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. Remember the scripture doesn't say all things are good but that all thing work for the good. I am sure each of these individuals, in some way, thought their circumstances were because God was disappointed in them somehow. God being disappointed in you is what Satan wants you to think, but God wants something completely different. Romans 12:2 Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will. God loves us and wants us to know His will for our lives. The scripture tells us God's will for us is good, pleasing, and perfect. God's will was firmly in place in Job's, Josephs', and Daniel's life and circumstance. When you read the bible stories about these men you will see great things happened through the lives of each of these men. The reason is because they were faithful, always.

The next time you are down because you feel God is disappointed in you for something you have done remember this. John 3:16 For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. When you read this scripture say your name where the word "world" is and you can see how much God loves you.
